Our Expert Insight series continues with Solicitor, Enda McGarrity and Trainee Solicitor, Sarah Kirk who discuss the scale and systemic nature of the failures in cervical cancer screening uncovered by a recent report by the Royal College of Pathologists (RCPath Consulting).

A statutory public inquiry will be necessary to investigate these issues in a robust and transparent manner. READ MORE

We were delighted to join Cruse Bereavement Support and friends on a very wet and blustery Slieve Donard to mark their 40th anniversary!

Cruse provide vital support for those who are struggling through one of the most painful times in life with bereavement support, information and campaigning. It is a privilege to have them as our charity partner this year and we wish them many more years of success.

Well done to all who braved the conditions on the Mournes!

UK Covid-19 Inquiry

The Module 1 Report has been published by the UK Covid Inquiry containing the first submission of recommendations following the Covid-19 pandemic.

In collaboration with Northern Ireland Covid-19 Bereaved Families for Justice we have prepared a commentary on these recommendations regarding the impacts of their implementation on Northern Ireland's emergency response system and what it means for bereaved families.

The voices of bereaved families are vital to inform this necessary change. DOWNLOAD A COPY OF THE REPORT
